

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## PREFACE.

THIS genealogical record of a simple Quaker family and its collaterals is yet another testimony to the spiritual force and marvellous vitality of the teaching of George Fox. The history of the house is co-extensive with that of the Society of Friends, which was joined by its founder, a simple yeoman, one of that class which contributed so largely, in the seventeenth century, to the making not only of England, but of the United States of America. The spirit of the Pilgrim Fathers in the "Mayflower," and of the "Ironsides" on the field of battle, fighting for liberty of conscience, was also shown in that of the Friends when, "in their resolute performance of duties they conceived imposed upon them," they faced every hardship in the sacred cause of toleration. It was reflected in that sturdy yeoman, John Backhouse (p. 13), who, in 1661, endured patiently months of imprisonment in Lancaster Castle for meeting to worship with other Friends. In 1684 his cattle were sold for payment of tithes, and his younger son, James Backhouse (p. 14), our ancestor, obtained a place in Friends' "Book of Sufferings," by dying a prisoner in the same place and for the same cause in 1697. With unflinching persistence the family have adhered to the principles for which he died, and have continued to oppose as sturdily, even unto the present day, the similar impost of church rates.

The singular success in commercial enterprise attained by those foreign Protestant refugees who fled to our shores "for conscience sake" proves that the qualities which drove them into exile stood them in good stead even in practical life. And so the sturdy independence of the Friends and their stubborn adherence to their principles were carried with success into business life, when England, from an agricultural, became a manufacturing country. Such names as those of Bright, Forster, Fry, Gurney, Pease, and other Quaker families remind us how prominent a part, in proportion to their numbers, the Friends have played, not only in modern commerce, but in the Legislature.

The strenuous belief of Friends in the mission of the evangelist led them to seek converts even abroad. Many of our ancestors and their wives became public ministers of the Society of Friends, and Iceland and North America were visited by William (p. 15), (the son of the martyred James), who died in the middle of the last century, and Mauritius, Cape Colony, and Van Dieman's Land by James Backhouse (p. 37), of York, 1831-41, as missionaries.

William Backhouse (p. 15), the first missionary, and the last yeoman of his line, left Yealand, the home of his ancestors, removed to Over Kellett about 1727, becoming, as he tells us in his will, a "dealer in yarn;" and there he died. His son James (p. 17) was the first settler in Darlington, where, together with his sons, he carried on the business of flax dresser and linen manufacturer, and established in 1774 the banking house, now a household word in the north of England.

From this date the various members of the family have interested themselves in the principal commercial enterprises in the palatinate. Conspicuous among them may be named Jonathan Backhouse (p. 25), of Darlington, silver medallist of the Society of Arts, who was a promoter of the Stockton and Darlington Railway—the first to carry passengers—and who yet, amongst his varied engagements, found time, as did his wife, to travel extensively as ministers of the Society of Friends. Another, Thomas Backhouse (p. 34), of York, was a prominent director both of railways and of banks; while his uncle James (p. 37), one of the missionaries referred to, now represented by his grandson and namesake, was a well-known York botanist. This recital may fittingly close with a reference to the late Edward Backhouse (p. 32), author of "Early Church History," so well known in Sunderland (see "Dictionary of National Biography"), and to the present head of the family and of the bank, Edmund Backhouse (p. 11), who was Darlington's first Member of Parliament, 1868-74, and 1874-80.

Preface.

Nor does this exhaust the roll, for among collaterals is John Wakefield (p. 64), of Kendal, founder of another and equally well-known banking house, Wakefields, Crewdsons and Co. ; and a casual glance at the names in the index will doubtless recall other triumphs in commerce by many offshoots of the family.

The 130 portraits which illustrate this work will lend a hitherto unique charm to the book, and their appearance in a work of this kind is due in the first instance to the acquiescence of T. W. Backhouse (p. 33), of West Hendon House. To W. Ecroyd (p. 36), of Lomeshaye, Nelson (editor of "Court Rolls of the Honor of Clitheroe," 2 vols.), the family is also indebted for contributing much original matter, for revising proofs, and for the pedigrees in the wills' volume, which has expanded far beyond its intended limits, and which cannot fail to be correspondingly appreciated by the genealogical faculty, though the wills are tantalizing to us in their refusal to illustrate the history of this family to any appreciable extent. My hope is, however, that our combined efforts will be approved by our kin, and be a fresh encouragement to me in my life-long exertions against spurious titles, spurious genealogy, and spurious coat armour.

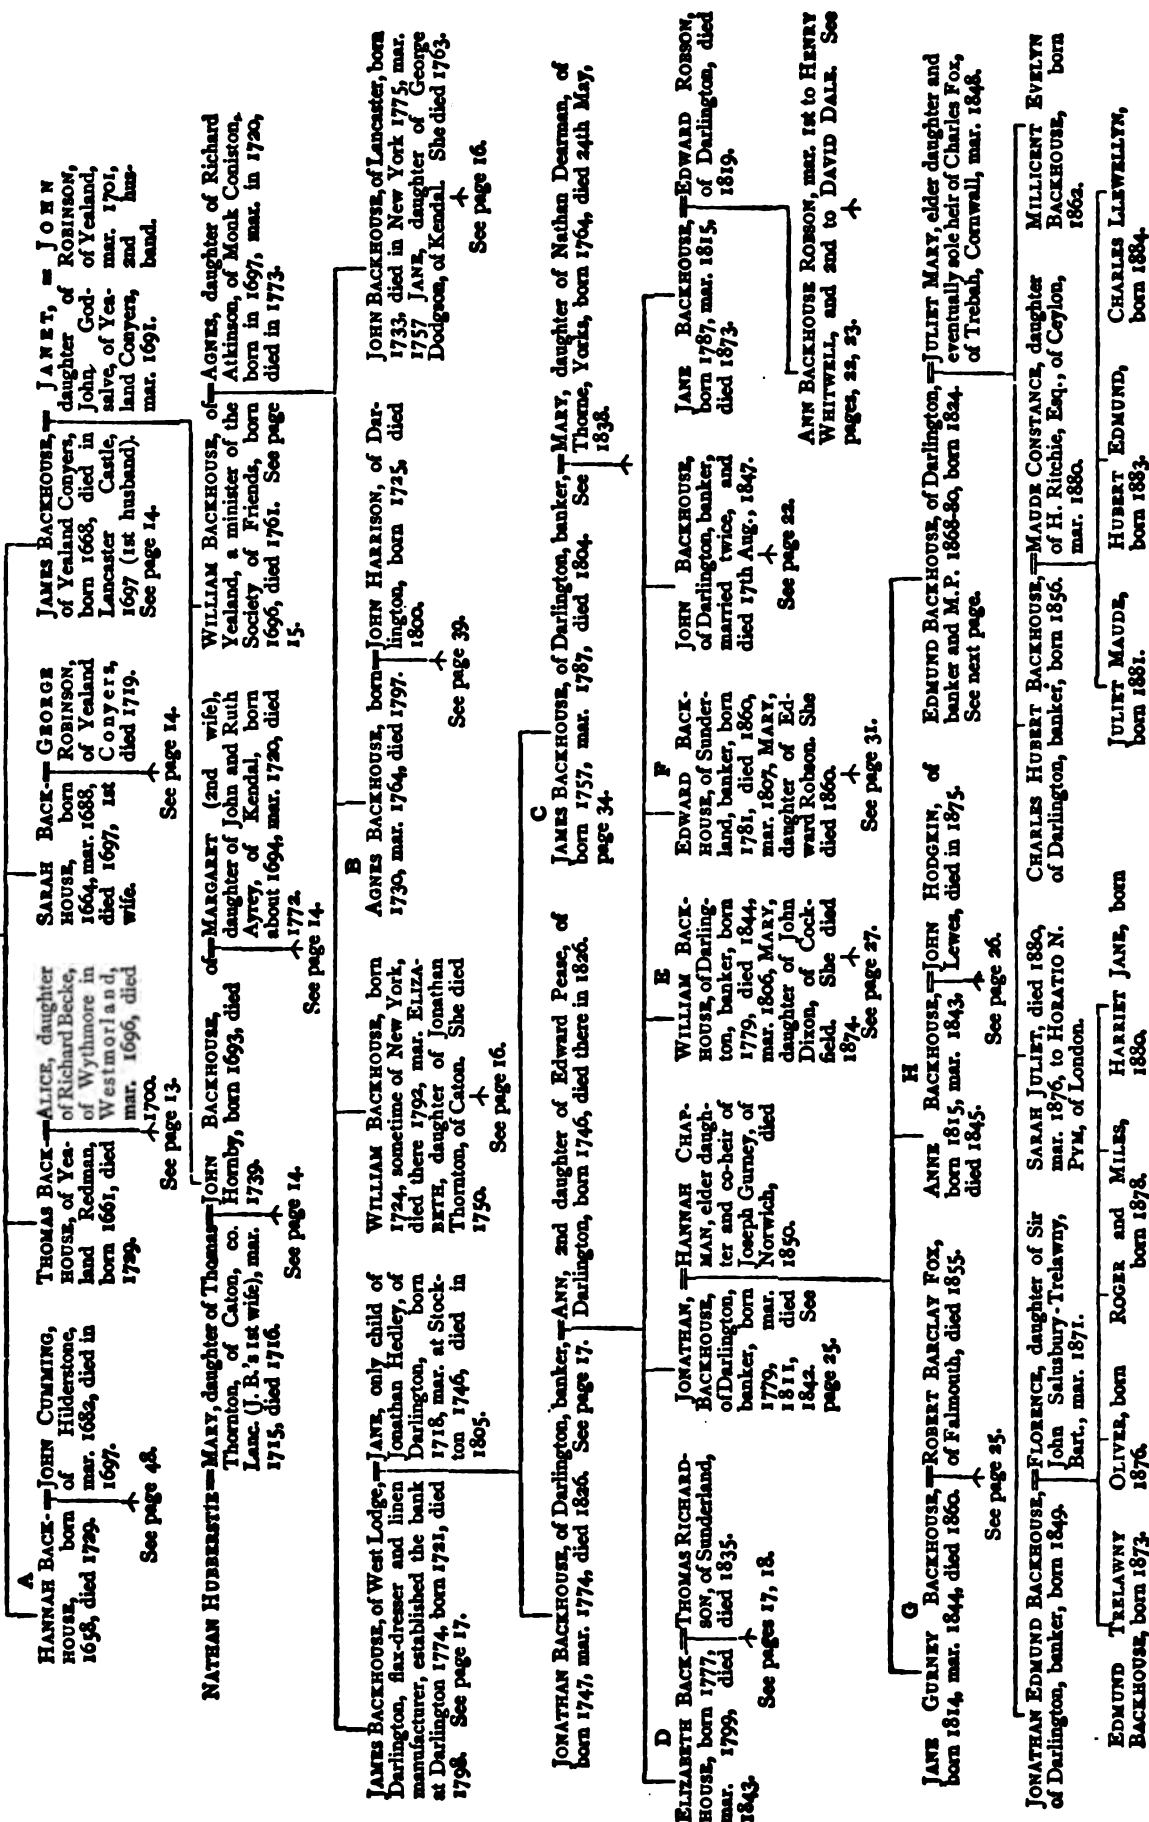

It is not a little singular that in the United States, where families are now widely scattered and more difficult to trace than with us, there is infinitely more of the family feeling, as exhibited in numerous family histories and interesting family gatherings. One may fairly hope that such works as this tend to foster here also a wholesome family spirit, an intelligent and rational interest in our forefathers. To quote from a well-known writer who has not long passed away: "We shall surely not be the less at home in our own generation if we bear in mind that we are the heirs and scholars of the generations that went before us, if we now and then stop in our own course to thank the memory of those without whom our own course could not have been run, if we are ready at every fitting moment to praise 'famous men and our fathers that begat us.'"

BACKHOUSE, FORMERLY OF YEALAND REDMAN, CO. LANC.

Lineage.

ROBERT BACKUS, of Yealand, parish of Warton, bond to administer his goods given by Thomas Astley and another, circa 1604 (see page 75), probably father of Jane Backhouse, baptized at Warton 27th Feb., 1593.<sup>1</sup>

RICHARD BACKHOUSE, of Yealand Redmayne, parish of Warton. Inventory of his goods taken 16th Sept., 1640, by Richard Bacchus and others (see page 75). Richard Backhouse, of Yelland, and others, were plaintiffs, versus Edward Holt and others, concerning lands in Yealand, Warton, Coniarse, Over Kellet, &c., and a demesne called Duorslacke, in occupation of Thomas Middleton, of Leighton (see Exchequer depositions, Lancashire, 12th Feb., 3 Chas. I., 1627); perhaps baptized at Warton 13th August, 1583; buried there 13th Sept., 1640, was probably father of a daughter; Jane Backhouse, who was a legatee, 1641, under the will of John Backhouse, of Warton (see pp. 75, 76), "to Jane Bachus, the late daughter of Richard Bachus, late of Yealand Redman, deceased, one lamb"; baptized 11th April, 1626.

RICHARD BACKHOUSE, of Yelland Conyers, co. Lanc. Inventory of his goods taken 6th May, 1666. Bond dated 6th June, 1667, signed by Anne Backhouse, of Yealand Conyers, and the mark of Robert Backhouse (see page 76).

(1) JOHN BACKHOUSE, of whom presently, was probably nearly related to and even brother of
(2) Richard Backhouse, of Yelland, parish of Warton, to whom his wife Mary and his son Robert administered 23rd Dec., 1696 (see page 77). He had a son and probably 2 daughters:

(1) Robert Backhouse, living 1696; made his will 1st Aug., 1728, in which he named his nephew, Robert Backhouse, and "the eight children" of his niece Hannah, wife of Joseph Bispham (see page 79).

(2) Ann Backhouse, buried at Hilderstone, co. Lanc., 1676, xi. 2; married at William Waithman's house, Lindeth, 1672, iii. 19, as 2nd wife to Robert Hubberstie, of Yealand, who died 1706, viii. 12, having had by her 2 sons and daughter:

(1) Nathan Hubberstie, of Yelland, husbandman, born 1673, vii. 6, died 1709, iii. 15; married 1697, vi. 17 at her father's house, Mary, daughter of Thomas Thornton, of Deepclough in Littledale. She died 1716, v. 23, having re-married 1715, iv. 2, to John, elder son of James Backhouse, of Yealand Conyers (see page 14).

(2) Hannah Hubberstie, born at Yealand 1675, iv. 8, died 1763, vi. 1, aged 88; married at Yealand <sup>1692</sup> i. 6, to Joseph Bispham, son of John, of Bickersteth, co. Lanc., and Mary Bastwell his wife. He died 1750, iii. 3, having had 9 children, of whom (see page 74) the eldest surviving son:

BENJAMIN BISPHAM, married at Yelland Conyers 1727, v. 5, Sarah, daughter of Thomas Backhouse, of Yealand Redman, co. Lanc. (see pages 13, 14), and had issue (see page 74).

(3) Isaac Hubberstie, born 1676, x. 28, buried at Hilderstone 14th proximo.

(8) Alice Backhouse, died a widow at Over Kellet 1727, ix. 1; married at Yelland 1676, iv. 4, to William Hugginson, of Yelland, who died 1707, viii. 1 or 19.

Backhouse of Yealand Redman.

JOHNS BACKHOUSE,<sup>1</sup> of Moss Side, near Yealand Redman, co. Lanc., yeoman, joined the Society of Friends at an early period in its history, for according to Besse's "Sufferings of Friends" he and other friends were taken from their meeting for worship at Yealand in 1st month (March), 1660—confined in Lancaster Castle until the summer of 1661, and set at liberty without examination, and for refusing to pay tithes his cattle were sold in 1684 (see Besse's "Sufferings," i. pp. 307, 488, 489, etc.); married, about 1650, Sarah, only daughter of William Jackson, of Yealand Redmayne (by his wife, Mabel Carr,<sup>2</sup> heir of her brother, John Carr, of Ridgend in Mansergh); he died at Yealand, and was buried at Hilderstone, near Yealand, 1690, iii. 9. Made his will 10 April, 1690, proved 29 May following, inventory dated 14th same month (see page 77). His wife Sarah adopted Friends' principles when 27 years of age, through the preaching of Geo. Fox himself in 1653, and became a public minister of that society ("Piety Promoted," vol. i.); she died 1706, v. 30, having had 4 sons and 2 daughters, all born at Yealand Redman:

(1) John Backhouse, born 1656, vi. 16, died 1657, iii. 30, buried 31st.

(2) James Backhouse, died at Yealand 1657, iii. 29.

(3) Hannah Backhouse, born 1658, viii. 28, died at Hilderstone 1729, iv. 8; married at Richard Lancaster's house, Yelland, 1682, iii. 24, to John, son of Edward Cumming, of Hilderstone, where he died 1697, xi. 28, having had 2 sons and 3 daughters (see page 48).

(4) Thomas Backhouse, of Yealand Redman, co. Lanc., yeoman, born there 1661, vii. 17, and died 1729, iii. 22; made his will 20th May, 1729, proved 1st October following (see pages 78, 79); married at Lambrigg 1696, ix. 16, Alice, daughter of Richard Becke, of Wythmore, in Westmorland, she was born 1671, vi. 8, and buried 1700, iv. 11, having had a son and daughter:

(1) John Backhouse (1729), of Hilderstone, yeoman, born 1698, v. 26; died 4th May, 1779, aged 80, buried at Yealand; made his will 26th Dec., 1763, proved 19th June, 1779 (see page 81); devised all his property to his cousin, John Cumming, whose daughter Hannah conveyed Hilderstone by marriage to the father of the present owner (see page 16).

(2) Sarah Backhouse (1729), born at Beckhouses in Grayrigg 1700, iv. 29; buried 1731,

<sup>1</sup> John Backhouse, yeoman, of Yealand Redmayne, by indenture dated 20 July, 18 Chas. II., 1666, purchased from Christopher Robinson, of Yealand Redmayne, a close of land called Thrygill end close, containing  $3\frac{1}{4}$  roods, and also a parcel containing  $\frac{1}{4}$  rood, rent 1/.

John Backhouse, of Yealand Redmayne, co. Lanc., one of the customary tenants of the manor of Yelland, was admitted tenant of  $4\frac{1}{4}$  acres of land in Yelland Redmayne, of his own purchase from Thos. Mason, of Warton. Yearly rent  $5/8$ . Fine  $45/4$  at a court held 13 April, 1669.

John Backhouse appeared among the tenants of Yelland Redmayne at a Court Baron for the manor of Yelland, held at Yelland Storrs, 20 June, 34 Chas. II., 1682.

<sup>2</sup> Mabel Jackson, John Backhouse, and William Hugginson, of Yealand, in the parish of Warton, by deed dated 20 Feb., 1663, were bound to the Rev. Joseph Cradock in the sum of £100 to perform the last will of John Carr, brother of the said Mabel Jackson, whose only daughter Sarah was wife of the said John Backhouse.

Backhouse of Yealand Conyers.

vii. 20 (or viii. 29); married at Yelland Conyers 1727, v. 5, to Benjamin, son of Joseph, of Yelland Conyers (see page 12), and had at least 3 sons and a daughter (see page 74).
(5) Sarah Backhouse, born 1664, xi. 4, died 1697, iv. 9; married at Richard Lancaster's house at Yelland 1688, xi. 4, as 1st wife to George (son of George) Robinson, of Yealand Conyers, who died 1719, viii. (or ix.) 6, having had 3 sons and a daughter:

(1) Sarah Robinson, born 1691, vi. 3 or 13, probably died 1723, ii. 25.

(2) George Robinson, of Yelland Conyers, co. Lanc., born 1693, v. 30, probably died 1756, xii. 1, then of Cathouse (? Colthouse); married 1st at Lancaster 1723, i. 11, Elizabeth, daughter of John Yeats, of Lancaster, schoolmaster; she died 1727, ii. 24. He married 2ndly at Swarthmore 1731, iii. 11, Agnes Hest, of Ulverston, milliner.

(3) Thomas Robinson, born 1693, i. 6, died 1696, ii. 25.

(4) John Robinson, died 1697, vi. 9.

(6) JAMES BACKHOUSE, next mentioned.

JAMES BACKHOUSE, of Yealand Conyers, yeoman, born there 1668, xi. 24; committed to Lancaster Castle at the suit of the Dean and Chapter of Worcester, on a plea "de excommunicatione capiendae," for refusal to pay tithes, and to "answer his libel" on oath in the Bishop's Court, and died "a prisoner" in the Castle 1697, iv. 13, aged 29 (see "Piety Promoted," vol. i.); his will dated 3rd May, 1697 (see page 78). He married at Yealand Conyers (in Robert Hubbersty's house) 1691, xi. 14, Janet, daughter of John Godsolve, of Yealand Conyers (she re-married 1701, vii. 10, to John Robinson, of Yealand), and had 2 sons and a daughter, all born at Yealand:

(1) John Backhouse, of Hornby, co.
